2010 ANNUAL REPORT

OUR MISSION

To inspire curiosity and foster learning about Indiana's past by providing engaging, individualized and unique experiences.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

2010 NATIONAL MEDAL

In December, First Lady Michelle Obama presented Conner Prairie President and CEO Ellen M. Rosenthal with The National Medal, the nation's highest honor for museums, during a White House ceremony. This annual award, given by the Institute of Museum and Library Services, recognizes institutions for outstanding social, educational, environmental, or economic contributions to their communities.

"MAGNETIC MUSEUM" HONOR

Conner Prairie maintained its national presence at the Association of American Museums annual meeting in May 2010, being named one of nine "Magnetic Museums." This honor is given to museums that engage in a dynamic exchange of energy with the public they serve.

Spirit of the Prairie

The Spirit of the Prairie Awards dinner is Conner Prairie's opportunity to acknowledge those who have created a distinctly American story with their vision, passion, dedication and courage. The honorees exemplify the spirit of endeavor that created the rich and ever-changing tapestry of the United States.
