SENSORY-FRIENDLY MAP & INFORMATION

Welcome to Conner Prairie! We welcome all guests to Conner Prairie to authentically be themselves. We are happy to provide spaces and resources for individuals with autism or other sensory differences, and their families. You may utilize these spaces at any time during your visit.

This map shows the locations of Quiet Spots where you'll find sensory kits. These kits contain weighted blankets and sensory tools. Please use these spaces as needed. Two of these locations are identified as "staff only" locations, but please do not let that stop you from entering. Staff members are happy to exit the space as needed.

Below are tips to consider in planning your adventure around Conner Prairie today.

- If someone likes to interact with animals, our Animal Encounters Barn is perfect.
- If someone likes to tinker, visit Spark!Lab inside the Welcome Center.
- If someone likes to get their hands dirty, join interpreters in tasks in Prairietown and Lenape Indian Camp.
- If someone likes to play with toys, come and play in Discovery Station in the Welcome Center and in River Crossing out in Civil War Journey.
- If someone likes to create art, visit Anything Can Happen Art in the Welcome Center.
- Treetop Outpost is a great location for someone who loves being out in the woods engaging with the natural world.
- If someone does not like swift visual action/transitions or flashing lights, they might want to avoid the Civil War Journey media presentations inside the Mayfield & Nichols Dry Goods Store and The Raid.
- If someone does not like loud noises, be aware that Civil War Journey has occasional gunfire demonstrations. The Mayfield & Nichols Dry Goods Store in Civil War Journey also has loud noises.
