OUTDOOR EXPERIENCES FOR ALL AGES

LENAPE INDIAN CAMP

Find out what life was like for the Lenape Indians and American fur traders in the year 1816 when Indiana became a state. Strike up a deal at the Trading Post, throw a tomahawk and learn about the culture and language of the Lenape people.

WILLIAM CONNER HOUSE

Explore a treasured piece of Indiana history, built in 1823 and restored in 2016. Join the Conner family on their journey through Indiana's early years in this interactive house, where hands-on activities and materials tell stories about life in 1825. Then, stroll through the nearby heirloom gardens and visit the loom house.

ANIMAL ENCOUNTERS

Get up close to your favorite farm friends. Ask our livestock specialists about our heritage breeds and how Conner Prairie plays an important role in preserving them.

1859 BALLOON VOYAGE

Step into 1859 Lafayette, Indiana, and experience the story of aeronaut John Wise's historic Indiana airmail flight. Float 350 feet in the air in a *tethered helium-filled balloon and experience early aviation firsthand. (*WEATHER DEPENDENT, ADDITIONAL FEE)

1836 PRAIRIETOWN

Step back in time to experience life in this bustling pioneer town where the people, animals, objects, buildings and daily routines are just as they were in the 19th century.

1863 CIVIL WAR JOURNEY: RAID ON INDIANA

Cross a covered bridge and step into the southern Indiana town of Dupont shortly after the raid led by Confederate General John Hunt Morgan and his forces. Meet local residents, experience immersive presentations and even participate in military drills

TREETOP OUTPOST

As you climb to the top of this four-story treehouse to take in the view, explore various activities that allow you to connect with nature. The nearby treetop workshop offers unique opportunities to participate in a Make & Take activity.
