HELPFUL TIPS & INFORMATION

Conner Prairie strives to interpret our shared history and human experience in a safe and welcoming environment. We will NOT tolerate racist, sexist, or homophobic comments, vandalism, physical contact, or harassment of any kind. We look forward to learning with you!

• Guests under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult at all times.
• Conner Prairie strives to provide a rich and meaningful experience for guests of all abilities. If anyone in your group would benefit from a specific accommodation, please contact Guest Services for assistance.
• Strollers and wagons are now available for rental during your visit. $5 each. Wheelchairs are available for free.
• Please keep food in designated areas. The designated picnic area is available on a first come-first served basis for lunches brought from home.
• Watch for bumpy roads and paths in the historic areas.
• You may take pictures on your visit, but for personal use only. No tripods please.
• No weapons allowed on the property.
• Conner Prairie is smoke-free (this includes e-cigarettes). Thank you for not smoking/vaping.
• Conner Prairie staff may take photos of you for promotional use. If you don’t want to be photographed, please ask for a special sticker at the Ticket Desk so our photographer knows not to photograph you.
• To keep yourself and our rare breed livestock safe and healthy, please do not feed the animals. If you touch an animal, please make sure to wash your hands.

DAILY SCHEDULE

Lenape Indian Camp
Step into Indiana territory in our earliest historical area, 1816 Lenape Indian Camp. Here you will explore the life, culture and relationship between the Lenape Indians and American fur traders.

William Conner House
Explore the lives of the Conner family and find out how their story mirrors Indiana’s transition from territory to state.

Animal Encounters
Get up close and interact with your favorite farm animals! You’ll encounter big life lessons about animal husbandry, life cycles and silly and surprising animal behaviors.

Prairietown Est. 1836
Immerse yourself in a 19th-century village and interact with the people, animals, objects and routines of life in Central Indiana in 1836.

1863 Civil War Journey
On July 8, 1863, Confederate General John Hunt Morgan and his forces crossed the Ohio River into Indiana. In 1863 Civil War Journey, you’ll cross a covered bridge and step into the southern Indiana town of Dupont shortly after this raid.

1859 Balloon Voyage
Learn more about early ballooning in our “Lighter than Air” exhibit and take a ride on the new 1859 Balloon Voyage.

Treetop Outpost
Adventure is calling. Come connect with the natural materials in the world around you. Treetop Outpost features a 4-story treehouse for guests of all ages to explore, observe, wonder and play. Immerse yourself in playful learning in our art, dig, build, and play areas around Treetop. Borrow an Adventure Backpack and explore the Nature Walk.

Spark!Lab
In Spark!Lab, we believe everyone is inventive. Every day we provide opportunities for children and families to explore their inventive creativity—to create, innovate, collaborate, and problem-solve—because these experiences empower guests to develop the skills and confidence they need to succeed today and in the future.

Habitat | Open March 28 - October 29
Habitat highlights many diverse natural habitats here at Conner Prairie and around the world. Intriguing thematic sculptures, hands-on activities, and informative signage will connect you with the natural world in a brand-new way.
